

Protected Characteristics

The Equality Act uses the term “protected characteristics” to refer to aspects of a person’s identity. Treating a person less favourably because they have one or more of these characteristics would be unlawful. The protected characteristics are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

The protected characteristics of age and marriage and civil partnership apply to schools as employers, but not in relation to their provision for pupils. The school does not record other protected characteristics data relating to pregnancy and maternity, sexual orientation, and gender reassignment.

The governing body of Uffington CE Primary School have decided to focus upon five protected characteristics which they feel are particularly pertinent to a primary school setting:

Protected Characteristics
	Pupils	Staff
Gender	47% male 53% female	31% male 69% female
Disability	7%	19%
Race other than White British	6%	0%
Religion or Belief declared as anything other than Christian	14%	0%
Age	4 – 11 years

Commentary

The race characteristics of pupils and staff is representative of the local community.
